RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On December 9, 2019, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) Report, in which he conceded entitlement. On December 12, 2019, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation for her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Respondent now proffers that petitioner receive an award of a lump sum of $48,290.77 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. The award is comprised of the following: $47,500.00 for past and future pain and suffering, and $790.77 in unreimbursed medical expenses. This amount represents compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.¹ Petitioner agrees.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.

¹ Should petitioner die prior to the entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
